Brock University Conference Assistance Bursary

This award is sponsored by Brock University and administered by the Graduate Student Association. The award provides financial assistance to graduate students who have presented original work at an academic, professional or quasi-academic gathering. Proof of conference registration and attendance is required and receipts must be attached to this application form. To be eligible to receive funds from BUCAB, applicants must use Brock institutional campaign materials such as PowerPoint templates, font, logos for posters or any other Brock branded promotional item. (Links to templates are provided on the GSA website). An amount of up to $1000 per term will be divided equally among all qualified applicants, although no applicant will receive more than the sum of their submitted receipts. A GSA member may claim up to $250 per academic year from BUCAB and may only claim funds from BUCAB once per conference. Please submit your application form to the GSA, MC C302 by 4:00 p.m. the first Monday of December, April and August. Applications will be reviewed at the end of every academic term and applicants will be notified of the results by email.
