Goodman School of Business

Brock University

Sample Program Plan: Bachelor of Accounting - Co-op

In addition to obtaining the required 51 credit hours, you can acquire 16-20 months of the required 30 months practical work experience to receive your professional CA designation.

It is important that you follow the correct course sequencing specific to your degree as outlined below.

	Fall	Winter	Spring
Year 1	- ACTG 1P11 Introduction to Accounting I - ECON 1P91 Principles of Microeconomics - Humanities Context course - ITIS 1P97 Data Analysis and Business Modeling - MATH 1P98 Practical Statistics	- ACTG 1P12 Introduction to Accounting II - ACTG 1P71 The Legal Environment of Business - ECON 1P92 Principles of Macroeconomics - MATH 1P97 Calculus with Applications - Humanities Context course	Summer Vacation
Year 2	- ACTG 2P31 Accounting for External Reporting I - ACTG 3P97 Accounting Information Systems - ECON 2P91 Business Econometrics with Applications - FNCE 2P91 Corporate Finance I - OPER 2P91 Operations Management	Work Term 1	- ACTG 2P21 Cost and Managerial Accounting I - ACTG 2P32 Accounting for External Reporting II - ACTG 3P11 Auditing Concepts - FNCE 3P93 Corporate Finance II
			Summer - ETHC 3P82 Ethics in Business - 1 full Science context credit
Year 3	Work Term 2	Work Term 3	- ACTG 3P23 Cost and Managerial Accounting II - ACTG 3P33 Accounting for External Reporting III - ACTG 3P41 Taxation I - OBHR 2P91 Organizational Behaviour
Year 4	- ACTG 4P41 Taxation II - MKTG 2P91 Introduction to Marketing - Elective - Elective (Year 2+) - Non-Business elective	Work Term 4	- ACTG 4P34 Accounting for External Reporting IV - ACTG 4P42 Taxation III - ACTG 4P61 External Auditing I - Non-Business elective
Year 5	- ACTG 4P11 Accounting Theory - ACTG 4P12 Integration and Problem Solving - ACTG 4P62 External Auditing II - MGMT 4P90 Business Strategy - Non-Business Elective

USEFUL LINKS:

- This is a sample only: contact Academic Advising via the Business Student Portal to have your program plan personalized.
- More information on the Bachelor of Accounting (BAcc) program
- Refer to the most recent course calendar for complete course information
- Timetable

NOTES:

- Students can take a maximum of 8.0 first year credits.
- For BAcc students, a minimum of 1.5 elective credits in year 3 and 4 must be non-business elective credits.
- Program requirements are subject to faculty and departmental approval and it is the student's responsibility to ensure that all degree and program requirements are satisfied.
- Care should be taken when selecting courses to ensure that all prerequisites are satisfied.

CREDIT DEFINITIONS:

Business elective	Any course from: ACTG, ENTR, FNCE, ITIS, MGMT, MKTG, OBHR, OPER
Elective	Any course from any year level
.50 credit	One partial credit course (ex. ALPHA 1P00)
1.0 credit	Either one full credit course (ex. ALPHA 1F90) or two partial credit courses (ex. ALPHA 1P00 and ALPHA 1P01)