Music Ed Plus Application Procedures for Students

Academic Eligibility
Music Ed Plus applicants must be music majors (single or combined).

Prospective applicants should be aware that the Music Ed Plus program is competitive. It will be based on: 1) the applicant's qualifications, compatibility, and experience; and, 2) the available volunteer and professional development opportunities.

Application
Applications for the 2014-2015 academic year are now available here:
https://www.brocku.ca/music-ed-plus-application-form
Applicants will need to submit an online application (including a statement of interest and an autobiographical sketch) for admittance to the program by April 8 for returning students and by June 6 for incoming students.

Statement of Interest
Applicants are required to submit answers, in less than 250 words, to the following questions:
- Which areas of musical study are you currently interested in pursuing and why?
- What do you hope to get out of Music Ed Plus for this coming year?
- What are your career goals?
- How do you see Music Ed Plus benefiting you and your future career?
- What qualities, strengths and experience will you bring to Music Ed Plus?

Autobiographical Sketch
The autobiographical sketch should be an inclusive list of the pertinent details of an applicant's activities in the last four years within the following categories. In all cases, please list musical activities firstly, and then list other (non-musical) activities which you think are applicable:
- Employment
- Volunteer activities
- Extracurricular activities
- Awards and accomplishments
- Other

Applicants are advised to list a maximum of 10 activities which will give the Music Ed Plus committee insight into their musical background. Applicants should include experiences that demonstrate ability not only in musical terms, but also show leadership, innovation, creativity, perseverance, reliability, and responsibility.

E-mail address
Please make sure that you list an e-mail address which you check on a regular basis (preferably daily) since the Music Ed Plus committee will be in contact with you throughout the summer concerning your placement and chamber music ensemble.
