Angela Aiello Honoured with Top 30 Under 30 Award

Toronto, ON (Thursday, February 24, 2011): On Wednesday February 23rd, 2011 Angela Aiello was selected by the Ontario Hostelry Institute to receive an award of distinction in the hospitality industry, the Annual Top 30 Under 30 Award. Aiello was recognized amongst thirty top young performers as one of Ontario's leaders in hospitality for her dedication and innovation in the wine industry.

"I am honoured to have been nominated and awarded the OHI Top 30 Under 30 Award" says Aiello "It's a great thing to be recognized by my fellow industry peers and a pleasure to work alongside many other award winners and other top young professionals in the hospitality industry"

Angela Aiello is the Founder of the iYellow Wine Club that now boasts close to 7000 members. She is a homegrown Ontario Wine Country Girl who created a club to empower people with what she calls "Wine Confidence". The club coordinates and conducts wine events, wine tours and runs a wine school.

"I have always been passionate about food and wine," Aiello says, "the iYellow Wine Club allows me to share my passion and help my wine club members build their own 'Wine Confidence'"

ABOUT iYELLOW WINE GROUP

The iYellow Wine Club was created to empower its over 7000 members and followers with wine confidence and knowledge through regular social wine tasting events, educational wine class and experiential wine tours to Ontario Wine Country. For more information and the full listing of wine classes, tours and events please visit www.iyellowwineclub.com.

Aiello has also hosted wine educational segments on numerous media outlets including: the CBC's Steven & Chris Show, Canada AM, Le Gourmet TV, COSMO TV, and writes for the Niagara Grapevine Magazine. In 2010 Aiello also received the prestigious Top 40 Under 40 Award by Niagara's own Business Link Magazine. Currently she works alongside industry veteran John Nadeau and has helped to found Bevsupport which is a boutique and detailed oriented tasting company (specializing in LCBO tastings).
