Teacher Education Program Fee Notes:

1. The normal credit load for the Teacher Education Program is 6.0 credits. Therefore the tuition and per credit ancillary fees for this credit load would be calculated as follows; 6 x $1,144.04 or $6,864.24 for Domestic students and 6 x $2,944.66 or $17,667.96 for International students. To note, some streams of the Teacher Education Program (such as I/S (French Teachable) require you to take a larger per credit load, to calculate the tuition charge simply multiply the total credit weight of your registered courses by the applicable per credit amount listed above.
2. Junior/Intermediate students with French as a teachable subject are required to take EDUC 8P13 in addition to the require Pre-service courses.
3. Intermediate/Senior Technological Studies students are required to take EDUC 9F24 and 9F25 in the preceding Summer session and will be charged the appropriate In-Service (Additional Qualification) fees. Please consult the Inservice (AQ) Financial Services Student web page for the applicable fee.
4. All applicable Sessional Ancillary fees noted above will be charged in addition to the per credit tuition/ancillary fees. Those Teacher Education students who are based at our Hamilton Campus will be exempt from paying the Health Services fee as well as the Bus Pass fee.
5. All Teacher Education students will be automatically charged the following three program specific fees:
 - a. Handbook Printing Fee $ 10.00
 - b. Material/Administration Fee $110.00
 - c. Application to Graduate $ 35.00
