

Joint Health & Safety Committee

The Brock University's Joint Health and Safety Committee is mandated by the Occupational Health and Safety Act. It consists of members who represent a cross-section of the University workforce. At least 50% of the committee are non-supervisor, worker representatives. The committee meets regularly to review incidents, accidents and other concerns and to make recommendations to the administration where appropriate.

Minutes are posted on the EHS bulletin boards located at each building complex on campus.
