

Dean, Goodman School of Business

Brock University – St. Catharines, ON

One of the fastest-growing universities in Canada, with over 18,500 students, Brock University is seeking candidates for the position of Dean of the country's most recently named business school. A transformational gift from the Goodman Foundation honours the family of business leader, investment expert, and sitting University Chancellor Ned Goodman, and provides Brock University with new capital funding to invest in resources and facilities that will benefit students, faculty, alumni, and future generations.

As Dean of the AACSB-accredited Goodman School of Business, you will join a Faculty respected nationally and internationally for its strong and effective teaching, its innovative and entrepreneurial research culture, its broad-based co-op programs, and its extraordinary student experience. Offering undergraduate and graduate programs in Business Administration and Management, as well as its flagship program in Accountancy, the Faculty has been active in growing its master's degree offerings, as well as its international recruitment and exchange programming. The Goodman School of Business has the resources to further enhance its reach and its brand. With this commitment, you will expand academic research, community outreach, business development, and scholarships and awards. Working with the University's leadership team and with the School's 90 faculty, 28 staff, and 3,000 students, you will crystallize a vision for a recognized pacesetter in creative, responsive, evidence-based business research and learning.

A respected academic and experienced administrator, you have demonstrated an appreciation for teaching, along with the capacity to promote a vibrant research culture and facilitate transdisciplinary collaboration. You have a clear understanding of the importance of partnering with the business community in Niagara and beyond. An engaging ambassador and a dynamic, supportive leader and mentor, you have the ability to inspire, mobilize, and reinvent. Take your place as one of the principal authors of an emerging success story on the Niagara Peninsula as the Goodman School of Business makes its mark in capital letters.

Brock University is actively committed to diversity and to the principles of Employment Equity, and invites applications from all qualified candidates. Women, Aboriginal peoples, members of visible minorities, and people with disabilities are especially encouraged to apply. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. More information on Brock University can be found on the University's website www.brocku.ca. All responses to Caldwell Partners are confidential.
